"Being diagnosed with breast cancer while pregnant was shocking and isolating. Sharsheret made sure I didn't go through it alone.

Sharsheret needs YOUR SUPPORT now more than ever before. So please join me in making your year-end donation TODAY, and ensure that I, and thousands of women just like me, have Sharsheret to lean on when we need it most." Read more here.

Join The Men’s Leadership Council
Let's set the record straight. Men should care about hereditary cancer.

As we expand our educational offerings and resources to focus on hereditary cancer and men, Sharsheret will be launching a Men's Leadership Council. The Council will advise and help coordinate initiatives to more deeply engage and educate men. For more information or to discuss joining the Men's Leadership Council, please contact Galit Reichlin.

ANNOUNCING THE SHARSHERET
TRAINING INSTITUTE

With gratitude to Micah Philanthropies, Sharsheret is pleased to announce the creation of our new Training Institute for Jewish Leaders who advise women and families. Working in partnership with other organizations and in keeping with those organizations' priorities and objectives, Sharsheret will train participants to become experts in offering specialized support and guidance to women facing breast cancer or ovarian cancer as they navigate their cancer experiences.

The trainings will focus on:

- Understanding cancer
- Where being Jewish intersects with a cancer diagnosis
- How cultural and religious nuances impact cancer diagnosis, treatment, and survivorship
- Spiritual concerns
- Cultivating a caring community to support those affected by cancer and their communities-at-large

Our first cohort will begin training in January and is offered in partnership with Nishmat, a Jewish center for women’s scholarship, leadership, and social responsibility.

Sharsheret is eager to partner with other organizations to offer customized trainings. Please email Melissa Rosen with any questions or to discuss the Training Institute for Jewish Leaders.

Sharsheret Pink Day is an opportunity for you to raise awareness about breast and ovarian cancer and help save lives. Get involved on Wednesday, February 9th!

Wear pink and lead a breast cancer awareness or fundraising event virtually or in person for your school, organization or company and share Sharsheret’s free resources and giveaways! Or join us from home and help raise awareness on your social media.

Follow us for updates on our Instagram @sharsheretofficial and use #SharsheretPinkDay2022.

For questions or for more information, please contact Ellen Kleinhaus.
Sharsheret is proud to announce that our strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency have earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, America’s largest independent charity evaluator. This is the 9th consecutive time that Sharsheret has earned this top distinction, ranking the organization in the top seven percent of charities.
