New York, NY (April 1, 2022) - Sharsheret, the only national not-for-profit organization dedicated to addressing the needs of women and families, of all Jewish backgrounds, facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer is pleased to welcome Ari Tuchman as the newest member of the Sharsheret Board of Directors.

Ari, a long time resident of Silicon Valley, is the CEO of Quantifind, a Artificial Intelligence company for anti-money laundering based in Menlo Park, California, and the co-founder of Entanglement Technologies, which develops quantum sensors. Ari has served on the board of South Peninsula Hebrew Day School, is married to Liora Schultz, a pediatric oncologist, and is the proud father of Danelle, Natalia, Adin, Nurielle and Adrielle.

“We are thrilled to welcome Ari Tuchman to our national Board,” said Chief Executive Officer Elana Silber. “Ari’s professional expertise, personal experience, and passion for the cause will guide and enhance our efforts to improve quality of life for women and

ABOUT SHARSHERET

Sharsheret, Hebrew for chain, a national cancer organization with five offices (California, Florida, Illinois, New Jersey and New York), serves 250,000 women, families, health care professionals, community leaders, and students, in all 50 states. Sharsheret improves the lives of Jewish women and families living with or at increased genetic risk for breast or ovarian cancer through personalized support and saves lives through educational outreach.

While our expertise is in young women and Jewish families as related to breast cancer and ovarian cancer, Sharsheret programs serve all women and men.

As a premier organization for psychosocial support, Sharsheret is a member of the Federal Advisory Committee on Breast Cancer in Young Women, works closely with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and participates in psychosocial research studies and evaluations with major cancer centers, including Georgetown University Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. Sharsheret is accredited by the Better Business Bureau and has earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for nine consecutive years.
