

Bar Mitzvah Project

Ben Mavorah

Hi family & friends,

I can't wait for my Bar Mitzvah. Thanks to my mom & dad, all my religious school instructors, Rabbi Cheryl and all my family and friends, I am almost ready. When a Jewish boy becomes a Bar Mitzvah, he does something called a Mitzvah Project. It's an initiative that teaches us the most important values of Judaism which are repairing the world (tikkun olam) and compassion for others (v'ahavta l'rayecha kamocho).

For my mitzvah project, I am organizing a toy drive to benefit Sharsheret, an organization that helps Jewish woman and men with breast and ovarian cancer. This toy drive is called Busy Box. Each Busy Box includes toys, games and resource materials to occupy children while their mom (or dad) is at the doctor or resting after treatment.

I chose Sharsheret because this is an amazing organization and my mom, who is also amazing, works there. I hope you join me in helping support a very worthy cause for my mitzvah project.

If you would like to purchase and/or donate, please click the link below which will take you to Sharsheret 's Amazon wish list. Thank you in advance for your support.

With love,

Ben Mavorah
