New York, NY -- (July 26, 2023) - Sharsheret, the only national not-for-profit organization dedicated to addressing the needs of women, men, and families of all Jewish backgrounds who are facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer, is pleased to welcome Chief Development Officer Liz Klibanoff of West Orange, New Jersey. Liz will oversee and provide strategic direction, leadership and management for all of Sharsheret's fundraising activities.

Liz is a seasoned major gift solicitor who has successfully trained and led teams, improved processes to optimize donor experiences and created a mission-driven culture. During her 30-year career (working for both AMIT and ImpactIsrael) she has served as a key member of the executive management teams and in addition to soliciting major and capital gifts, she helped to position these organizations.

“While I knew Sharsheret was an outstanding organization, I had no idea the depth of how they help women, men, and young families,” said Sharsheret Chief Development Officer Liz Klibanoff. “So many people rely on Sharsheret, and it is my greatest privilege to maximize our development efforts to benefit more people around the country.”

“We are thrilled to welcome Liz to the team at this pivotal point of growth in Sharsheret’s history,” said Sharsheret Chief Executive Officer Elana Silber. “Liz’s experience, expertise, and leadership will guide and enhance our efforts to improve quality of life for women, men, and families facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer and to provide life-saving education and outreach to the broader community.”

ABOUT SHARSHERET

Sharsheret, Hebrew for chain, a national cancer organization with five offices (California, Florida, Illinois, New Jersey and New York), serves 250,000 women, families, health care professionals, community leaders and students in all 50 states. Sharsheret improves the lives of Jewish women and families living with or at increased genetic risk for breast or ovarian cancer through personalized support and saves lives through educational outreach.

While our expertise is in young women and Jewish families as related to breast cancer and ovarian cancer, Sharsheret programs serve all women and men.

As a premier organization for psychosocial support, Sharsheret is a member of the Federal Advisory Committee on Breast Cancer in Young Women, works closely with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and participates in psychosocial research studies and evaluations with major cancer centers, including Georgetown University Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. Sharsheret is accredited by the Better Business Bureau and has earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for nine consecutive years.
