Teaneck, New Jersey (October 25, 2023) – Sharsheret, the only national not-for-profit organization dedicated to addressing the needs of women and families of all Jewish backgrounds facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer, will host its annual New York City Benefit, in person, on Thursday evening, November 9th at the New York Academy of Medicine. This meaningful evening, hosted by best-selling kosher cookbook author Kim Kushner and co-chaired by Jonathan Kushner, Alyse and Adam Mandel, Kim Molstre and Phil Singer and Amy and Jamie Tadelis, will feature great food, an open bar and the incredibly talented magician Eric Wilzig as the headliner. "While our hearts remain focused on Israel, Sharsheret continues to provide vital genetic and mental health counseling, emotional support, financial assistance and lifesaving education to thousands of women, men and families facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer," said Sharsheret CEO Elana Silber. "We look forward to coming together as a community with compassion, sensitivity and strength."

ABOUT SHARSHERET

Sharsheret, Hebrew for chain, a national cancer organization with five offices (California, Florida, Illinois, New Jersey and New York), serves 250,000 women, families, health care professionals, community leaders and students in all 50 states. Sharsheret improves the lives of Jewish women and families living with or at increased genetic risk for breast or ovarian cancer through personalized support and saves lives through educational outreach.

While our expertise is in young women and Jewish families as related to breast cancer and ovarian cancer, Sharsheret programs serve all women and men.

As a premier organization for psychosocial support, Sharsheret is a member of the Federal Advisory Committee on Breast Cancer in Young Women, works closely with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and participates in psychosocial research studies and evaluations with major cancer centers, including Georgetown University Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. Sharsheret is accredited by the Better Business Bureau and has earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for nine consecutive years.
