

Atara Chana Wenger

Hi, I'm Atara Chana Wenger from Atlanta. In learning about my family history in preparation for my bat mitzvah, I learned about my great-grandmother Chana, who I was named after. One of her many accomplishments in life was when she went to Israel after World War II to help refugee children there. She hoped to move back to Israel one day, but she never got the chance. My great-grandmother Chana died of breast cancer just before my father was born. In her memory, I'm doing my bat mitzvah project to support Sharsheret, whose variety of support programming enables them to serve the community. I'll be giving out brochures at the bat mitzvah and we'll be making bookmarks to give to cancer patients with information about Sharsheret. To donate to Sharsheret in honor of my bat mitzvah, please go to <https://interland3.donorperfect.net/weblink/weblink.aspx?name=sharsheret&id=1> and follow the instructions. Thanks!
