New York, NY (January 2, 2024) – Sharsheret, the only international not-for-profit organization dedicated to addressing the needs of women and families of all Jewish backgrounds facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer, welcomes new Board Member Daniel Gorlin. Daniel currently resides in Chicago, IL where he works as a management consultant, serving as a Senior Partner and Managing Director at the Boston Consulting Group. Daniel and his wife Ashlyn, are very active both in national and local Jewish causes, sitting on various boards and doing committee work for organizations.

Daniel's connection to Sharsheret runs long and deep. Daniel's mother Susan, a breast cancer and ovarian cancer survivor, has been a dedicated and long-standing supporter and his sister, Michal, a breast cancer survivor, has been actively helping to launch Sharsheret's Israel pilot. Daniel himself has been involved for over a decade helping plan fundraising events in Chicago; he was honored at the National Sharsheret Champion Gala in 2022.

ABOUT SHARSHERET

Sharsheret, Hebrew for chain, an international cancer organization with offices in the Midwest, Southeast, Northeast, West and Israel serves 250,000 women, families, health care professionals, community leaders and students in all 50 states. Sharsheret improves the lives of Jewish women and families living with or at increased genetic risk for breast or ovarian cancer through personalized support and saves lives through educational outreach.

While our expertise is in young women and Jewish families as related to breast cancer and ovarian cancer, Sharsheret programs serve all women and men.

As a premier organization for psychosocial support, Sharsheret is a member of the Federal Advisory Committee on Breast Cancer in Young Women, works closely with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and participates in psychosocial research studies and evaluations with major cancer centers, including Georgetown University Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. Sharsheret is accredited by the Better Business Bureau and has earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for nine consecutive years.
