New York, NY – January 5, 2026 — Sharsheret, the only international not-for-profit organization dedicated to addressing the needs of women and families of all Jewish backgrounds facing breast cancer and ovarian cancer, proudly announces the appointment of Stacy Reznikoff Kent to its national Board of Directors.

Stacy Reznikoff Kent brings more than 25 years of experience in nonprofit management, serving both as a professional leader and a dedicated volunteer. Most recently, Stacy served as Senior Executive Director at BSC Management. She currently holds the role of Co-Chair of Sharsheret's West Region Advisory Committee and was the inaugural Co-Chair of the Sharsheret West Coast Dash, helping to expand Sharsheret's reach and impact on the West Coast.

In addition to her work with Sharsheret, Stacy has held numerous leadership roles within the Jewish nonprofit community. Stacy currently serves on the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees for the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles as well as on their Israel grants committee. She is also active in the OU JLIC program, where she helped initiate JLIC presence at both the University of Chicago and Washington University in St. Louis. Internationally, she serves on the board of Kol Tzofayich, an organization dedicated to advancing innovative educational initiatives in Israel that blend academic excellence with vocational application. She is also a staunch advocate for HaShomer HaChadash, supporting land protection efforts in Israel through food security and safety initiatives.

She is a former board member of Shalhevet High School, where she served as Development Chair and on the Head of School Committee. She previously served on the board of Builders of Jewish Education and continues to support the organization as a member of its Board of Advisors.

A native Angeleno, Stacy is a graduate of Brandeis University. She is married to Ranon Kent, and together they are the proud parents of four children.

"The Board of Directors has been critical to the success and impact of Sharsheret over the last 23 years," said Sharsheret CEO Elana Silber. "We are thrilled to welcome Stacy to our Board. Her deep nonprofit expertise, strategic leadership, and long-standing commitment to Sharsheret's mission will be invaluable as we continue to expand our reach and impact."

ABOUT SHARSHERET

Sharsheret, Hebrew for chain, an international cancer organization with offices in the Midwest, Southeast, Northeast, West and Israel serves 275,000 women, families, healthcare professionals, community leaders and students in all 50 states. Sharsheret improves the lives of Jewish women and families living with or at increased genetic risk for breast or ovarian cancer through personalized support and saves lives through educational outreach.

While our expertise is in young women and Jewish families as related to breast cancer and ovarian cancer, Sharsheret programs serve all women and men.

As a premier organization for psychosocial support, Sharsheret is a member of the Federal Advisory Committee on Breast Cancer in Young Women, works closely with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and participates in psychosocial research studies and evaluations with major cancer centers, including Georgetown University Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. Sharsheret is accredited by the Better Business Bureau and has earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator for ten consecutive years.
