New Sharsheret Publications

The newest booklet in Sharsheret's Resource Series, A Guide for Mikvah Attendants, has been mailed to hundreds of Mikvah attendants across the country. The Guide will educate Mikvah attendants about the concerns of women living with breast cancer as they prepare for the Mikvah.

The Sharsheret Breast Cancer Navigation Flowchart is a new resource to help women newly diagnosed with breast cancer understand their pathology reports and can be used as a springboard for questions as they consider their treatment options. The Navigation Flowchart is available to women newly diagnosed with breast cancer, their families, and the healthcare professionals who care for them.

For more information and to order Sharsheret publications, please e-mail info@sharsheret.org or call toll-free (866) 474-2774.

Sharsheret Support Groups

Clinical Supervisor Shera Dubitsky, MEd, MA will introduce Sharsheret Supports to breast cancer support groups at the Bikur Cholim of Boro Park in Brooklyn, New York, May 6, 2009 and Jewish Family Service of Metrowest in Florham Park, New Jersey, May 14, 2009. Sharsheret Supports offers a Support Group Leader's Guide detailing step-by-step instructions on how to begin and sustain a culturally-sensitive breast cancer support group for Jewish women, a DVD introducing the unique concerns of Jewish women facing breast cancer, and the consulting services of a Sharsheret representative who can train local support group leaders or lead a sample support session.

For more information about bringing Sharsheret Supports to your community, please e-mail info@sharsheret.org or call toll-free (866) 474-2774.

Get Connected During National Volunteer Month

Take action during National Volunteer Month and join Sharsheret's National Volunteer Program today! To download a registration form, please go to http://www.sharsheret.org/library/VolunteerInformationForm.pdf. Sharsheret's programs are powered by the energy of our volunteers and we look forward to your participation.

April is National Volunteer Month and Sharsheret would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to all of the volunteers who selflessly give their time to provide invaluable support for our programs and services on the national and local levels. National Volunteer Month is also the perfect time to join Sharsheret's National Volunteer Program, Get Connected with the community at large, and reach out to Jewish women facing breast cancer, healthcare professionals, community leaders, and college students who may not know about Sharsheret.

Through our National Volunteer Program, Sharsheret will match your skills with an appropriate volunteer opportunity. For more information about Sharsheret's National Volunteer Program, please contact Manager of Volunteer Services Rebecca Schwartz at rschwartz@sharsheret.org.

Bat/Bar Mitzvah Program

Many young adults preparing for their Bat and Bar Mitzvahs find it fulfilling to participate in or initiate a Mitzvah project, contributing to the community and helping others as they become Jewish adults. Sharsheret's Bat/Bar Mitzvah Program offers many exciting Mitzvah projects. Thank you to:

- Bat Mitzvah Sydney Galligan and Bar Mitzvah Adam Schutzman (Bellmore, New York) for creating and selling Bat and Bar Mitzvah cards in support of Sharsheret.
- Bat Mitzvah Sydney Jensen (Grayslake, Illinois) for creating and selling Chai note pins to benefit Sharsheret.

For more information about including Sharsheret in your Bat or Bar Mitzvah celebration, please contact Manager of Volunteer Services Rebecca Schwartz at rschwartz@sharsheret.org.

Sharsheret On Campus

Sharsheret is reaching out to students across the country in an effort to raise awareness about breast cancer. Educating college students about breast health and the impact of breast cancer on Jewish women will help to save lives, as young women learn about the importance of early detection. Go to http://www.sharsheret.org/splashschool.php to visit our NEW campus outreach page!

The next Sharsheret on Campus event, Manicure for a Cure, will be held at the Princeton University Hillel (Princeton, New Jersey), April 30 - May 1, 2009. For more information, please contact Brooks Yang at brooksy@princeton.edu or Liz Consky at econsky@princeton.edu.

Outreach Events

Outreach events are wonderful opportunities for Sharsheret to reach women in diverse communities and to raise funds to support our outreach efforts. Our most recent event was held on March 25, 2009 in Rockville, Maryland. Director of Operations Elana Silber (pictured center with event coordinators, left to right, Audrey Siegel, Lisa Charnoff, Lisa Mellman, and Nira Berry) introduced Sharsheret, discussed the effects of breast cancer in the Jewish community, and described the breast cancer programs Sharsheret offers nationwide. The event also featured "Genetic Testing for Hereditary Breast and Ovarian Cancer: What Jewish Women Need to Know," a presentation by Beth Peshkin, Senior Genetic Counselor at Georgetown University, Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. To view the slideshow from Beth Peshkin's presentation, please go to http://www.sharsheret.org/images/parlormeetings/rockville-md-3-25-09/Sharsharet_Peshkin_Mar09.pps.

Our next event will be held in October 2009 in Chicago, Illinois. For more information about hosting an outreach event in your community, please e-mail events@sharsheret.org or call toll-free (866) 474-2774.
